

My family listens to AIR1 on a regular basis at home and at my work. The removal of AIR1 from my area would leave a very tremendous void in my listening choices. The other programming that would be provide by LPFM would most likey not be any benefit to my family.